VOL. VIII NO. 289

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS

TENNESSEE DERBY AND OAKS.

In a note concerning two important stakes, that a few months hence will engross the attention of followers of the turf, Secretary M. N. Macfarlan of the New Memphis Jockey Club says:

"Among those eligible to the Derby will be found some of the best two-year-olds of the year, the most notable of course is the Futurity winner. One important feature of the Tennessee Derby and Oaks is that there is no penalty or allowance in either, making both races for champion three-year-olds. The Tennessee Derby has never had the good fortune to have many good three-year-olds eligible to start, and trainers as a rule seem opposed to preparing a horse for this event, yet Lucien Appleby and Aladdin were both raced at the Memphis meeting, and both were placed in the American Derby and proved to be two of the best campaigners of the year. The early preparation did not injure them. The Tennessee Oaks is a much more fortunate race, and the winner usually shows to be one of the best three-year-old fillies of the year. May Hempstead, Lady Schorr and Flora Pomona may be mentioned, and the Oaks for 1903 should be no exception as some of the best two-year-old fillies of 1902 are eligible. The Derby presents about the best list of entries it ever had, but of course the declarations in January will make quite a difference in both races. The Tennessee Derby will be worth about $7,000, and the Tennessee Oaks about $3,700."

Owners are admonished to note the fact that second declarations from both stakes will fall due January 1 next.

The present list of eligibles to both follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Nearly all of the horses at New Orleans that were shipped from Bennings contracted cold on their trip and are all coughing. The Featherstone stable seemed to suffer most, as every horse in the barn has been ailing.

The race horse W. J. Baker, belonging to D. Hen-nesey, while en route to New Orleans from Ben-nings contracted lung fever so that it was necessary to destroy him.

W. Martin, the ex-jockey, is training Old Hutch for C. H. Smith.

It was ordered that the entries of all persons whose names appear in the list of those having claimed duplicate colors, as published in the Bul-letin, be refused until they comply with the rule.

The suspension of Jockey C. Bonner was extended to January 1, 1903.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Danny Maher, the well known American jockey, who has been riding in England with marked suc-cess during the past season, returned here last Fri-day on the White Star steamer Celtic, and was wel-come at the pier by his father and other friends from Hartford. Maher wore a long, fur-lined over-coat and held an English bulldog by a chain. Maher declined to say how much his earnings were, but the amount has been conservatively placed at $50,000.

"The season just closed," said the jockey. "has been very successful for me both financially and otherwise. Out of 435 mounts I rode 106 winners and wound up with the highest percentage of any rider. I will return to England in the spring and am under contract to Sir James Miller, Sir Daniel Cooper and Lord Cadogan, for whom I have ridden the past season. I prefer to ride in England, as there is more money in it for me.

"No, it is not true that I rode for King Edward for the reason that I did not have the chance. I would have jumped at such an opportunity, but I was never even approached on the subject. Jones is the king's jockey, and rides in the royal colors

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

English turf writers are unanimous in their praise of the two-year-old filly Caravel, and as she will be seen in all the big three-year-old events, including the Derby and Oaks, next year, the fact is significant just now. Caravel belongs to John Jubbins, owner of Ard Patrick, this year's Derby winner, and comes of real blue-ribbon stock. She is by Pioneer out of a Kendal mare, the latter a half brother to Ormond and sire of Galtee More, winner of the 1897 Derby. Not alone has the palm been awarded to Caravel for the present season, but those who are competent to speak say that she is the most powerful two-year-old animal seen on the English turf in many years. A bright bay, she stands sixteen hands and has a tremendous striding power. Caravel's first introduction to the public occurred at Hurst Park, where she won some small stakes in the early part of the season. Her work in the Club Two-Year-Old at Windsor at once attracted attention, and was at once followed up by a decisive win in the Ditch Mile Nursery in first class company. But the dashing filly met her first defeat in the Downe Nursery at Liverpool only after she had been literally weighted to the ground. Carrying the welter burden of 131 pounds, she was joint favorite with St. Walston, to which she was conceding forty-four pounds. Lord Stanley's Wood Sorrel, to which Caravel conceded thirty-three pounds, won. Sir Walston was second and Part Malt, which was in receipt of twenty-one pounds, third and Caravel fourth. About four lengths covered the four horses. Mornington Cannon had the mount on Caravel.

Out of the first thirty races run at Ingleside, twenty favorites came home with the gold, besides several second choices and backed horses. It was a perfect carnival for the ground talent, and many of the heavy plungers made enough the first few days to keep them in betting funds for a month. The game has been very tough to date. Barney Schreiber was one of those that were lucky enough not to cut in for the first three days. Both of his other books, however, Frank Bain and "Virginia" Carroll, got a scorching and were several thousand to the bad when the big bookmaker from Missouri appeared on the scene.

Winner—B. f. by St. Carlo—Bessie W. (trained by J. H. Shields). Went to post at 2:04. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second handily. St. Phillipina spreadeagled the field and won pulled up, displaying amazing speed and improvement in J. Ranch's hands and can beat good ones. Snark was lucky, had clear sailing and finished strongly. Montana Peeress came fast at the end and caught Mike Murphy tiring. The latter had followed the winner's hot pace closely for five furlongs. Young Morello, suddenly improved, finished strongly, but prefers mud. Homage closed a gap and should be improved by the race.

Winner—Ch. g. by Goldfinch—Confidante (trained by W. B. Jennings). Went to post at 2:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Bucolic, lucky and skillfully handled, saved ground on the stretch turn, came fast through the stretch and finished strongly. Somenos forced the pace to the stretch, where he turned wide, losing several lengths, and finished with a rush and was clearly best. Orsina tired right at the end after showing the way up to a hundred yards of the finish and will improve. Poacher was outrun, but ran gamely and was closing up at the end. Ripper made up ground after going the first half. No Friend had no chance with his start and can do better.

Overweights—Orsina, 1 pound. Bucolic, show, 1 to 3. Somenos, show, 4 to 1. Orsina, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Cicero—Leap Year (trained by W. L. Appleby). Went to post at 2:58. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Graftor indulged Gawaine with the lead to the last furlong, where he forged to the front cantering and outclassed the field. Gawaine secured a lucky start, led at a fast pace, held on unexpectedly well and was easily second best. Galanthus showed a good turn of speed, but failed to stay and is strictly a mudlark. Nannie Nolan, away poorly and taken a wide first turn, ran well. Ting a Ling was closing up in the stretch. Imperious sulked after going the first half and is good only in mud.

Graftor, show out. Gawaine, show, even. Galanthus, show, 24 to 1.

Winner—Br. c. by Sir Modred—Queen Bess, by Marden (trained by H. Stover). Went to post at 3:26. At post 8 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second handily. Kenilworth is in brilliant form and ran about the best race of his career. With a lucky start and vigorous ride he followed the pacemaker closely and finally wore him down after a long drive through the last quarter. Sad Sam was best at the weights, but was badly messed about on the stretch turn, losing ground and was weakly ridden at the finish where he came again very strongly. Byron Rose, always well up, held on well in the final drive and ran up to his best form. Lord Badge lost ground at the start and from a slow start closed a big gap and was closing up on the leaders like a cyclone and would have won in another fifty yards. Princess Titania is very good, but had no chance with an incompetent jockey.

Overweights—Lord Badge, 1 pound. Kenilworth, show, 1 to 2. Sad Sam, show, 1 to 2. Byron Rose, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—Ch. f. by Azra—Irene (trained by R. Wilson). Went to post at 3:58. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Azarine was lucky, had clear sailing, finished with a rush and caught Bedner tiring in the final sixteenth. The latter had been excessively urged in the first half. Quiz, away flatfooted and hopelessly pocketed in the first half, closed up with a rush after overcoming repeated interference and was best, is one of the most improved horses in training and is a wonder in mud. Searchlight went well, but was outclassed. Oscar Tolle quit after showing the way to the stretch.

Winner—Ch. h. by El Rayo—Fusillade's Last (trained by O. A. Bianchi). Went to post at 4:22. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Horton beat the gate, but was outrun to the stretch, where, after a rough journey, he came through next to the rail and caught Rollick napping at the end. The latter had forced the pace throughout and was drawing clear and apparently winning in the last furlong. He was best and is in great form. Artilla was given a lucky start and had clear sailing, but made wide turns, then closed up at the end with a tremendous rush and ran to her best form. Dunblane failed to stay after following the pace closely for seven furlongs. Antolee got away badly, ran wide on the first turn, raced into prominence in the first half and, being carried wide on the stretch turn, tired badly in the final drive. Hesper and Forte are both improving. Digby Bell went a good five furlongs.

Overweights—Horton, 1 pound. Horton, show, 2 to 5. Rollick, show, 2 to 5. Artilla, show, 2 to 1. Antolee, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Russell—Prudery (trained by S. J. Charles).

Went to post at 2:00. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won driving and all out; second easily. Russellton and Nabocklish fought it out all through the last quarter. The former was the gamest and shook off Nabocklish in the last furlong. The latter went through next to the inside rail at the first turn and saved a lot of ground. He stumbled a couple of times in the stretch run, but for which he might have won. Ceylon closed a big gap in the last quarter and was wearing the leaders down at the end. Precisely quit in the stretch run. Lissome and Denny Duffy were as good as left at the post.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

all the time. I had the privilege, however, of riding the best two-year-olds in England, Roxs and Flotsam. On the former I won six races and on the latter two. Roxs belongs to Sir James Miller. With him I won the Bedford Stakes, the Chesterfield Stakes, the Woodcote Stakes, the Champagne Stakes, the Coventry Stakes and the Dewhurst Plate. With Flotsam I won the Imperial Produce Stakes and the Middle Park Plate. On Cheers I won the $50,000 Eclipse Stakes at Sandown for the Duke of Devonshire. I also captured the International Breeders' Stakes with Mr. Arthur James' Rabelais. I received splendid treatment from the English sportsmen and turf authorities."

In regard to the cases of jockeys Reiff and Henry, Maher declined to make a statement, because, as he said, he did not know enough about the matter to form an opinion. He seemed to be in robust health and said that he was glad to get back home for Christmas and a good rest.

Governor Bryan, attorney for Judge Perkins in the suit of Colonel Applegate against Judge Perkins, for possession of stock in the Latonia Jockey Club, filed a brief in the circuit court at Covington, Ky., last Friday, in which he states that there was no evidence that the defendant received from the plaintiff Applegate any pecuniary consideration for extending the time for the payment of notes due. It is further stated that an agreement by the creditor with his debtor to take less than his debt based on no other consideration than to relieve him of his pecuniary embarrassment, can not be enforced, considering the statement of the plaintiff that he owned only $85,000 of the stock he asks possession of, and that when the tender was made the plaintiff owed $3,428.29 more than he offered. Judge Tarvin will this week state the points that he desires the attorneys to discuss in oral argument.

C. R. Ellison's speedy two-year-old Lyman Hay is thought to have bowed a tendon, and will hardly be raced at New Orleans any more this winter. This colt ran a fair race in the Inaugural. Ellison had him well engaged in the local stakes.
